

Deterministic products of the evidence index

For authoritative index records I_A , dossier, reference, and validation outputs are deterministic projections:

$$(D, R, V) = (\text{compact}(I_A), \text{occurrences}(I_A), \text{check}(I)). \quad (1)$$

Thus the same indexed evidence supports compact review, exhaustive exact-line drafting, and integrity validation without repeated semantic transcription.